BROADWAY-THE AMERICAN MUSICAL SERIES

FROM PBS

Join us for the first in a series of shows created by PBS. Episode One, Give My Regards to Broadway (1893-1927), portrays New York City's turn-of-the-century musical theatre that embodied the hope that America offered to millions of immigrants. The story of the legendary producer Florence Ziegfeld introduces the era's key figures: songwriter Irving Berlin, comedienne-singer Fanny Brice and comic Bert Williams—America's first "crossover" artists and brash song-and-dance man George M. Cohan, Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II unleash Broadway's potential with the groundbreaking.

Join us for a reception at 7:00pm with the show starting at 7:30pm.
